Auburn Station

Auburn Station is located in downtown Auburn and features a bus loop used by King County Metro Transit and ST Express buses, a parking garage with 535 stalls for transit users and 180 stall for the city's use. Public art is installed on the parking garage facade and in the plaza of the station.

Mode
Bus

Highlights
Start of service: Auburn Station was opened for service in 2000, and the parking garage was completed in 2003

Location: At the west end of downtown Auburn on the BNSF main line between A and C streets and from Main Street south to Third Street

---